

Hilda Bayliss Biography

Hilda Bayliss is a potter living and working in her studio in Manns Harbor, NC. She made her way to the Outer Banks with a degree in Biology with emphasis in Botany, Ornithology, and Horticulture. She has studied ceramics at Pocosin Arts, College of the Albemarle, and Penland School of Crafts.

She works in stoneware and porcelain and especially likes the stunning results of alternative firings such as wood, pit, and horsehair. Her work can be seen at Dare County Arts Council, Chowan County Arts Council, and Altwood in Corolla.